

The chart provided below is meant to help you reflect on your relationship to God. Our relationships through life colors our perception and relationship with God. The chart asks, is God a master or is God a father? With each line, reflect on how you perceive that reality.

The hope is that you begin to recognize your relationship with God as a son or daughter of a loving father. When we see God as a loving Father we recognize his desire for good things in our life, and his support through all of life. We also respond with affection, devotion, and love in that role.

Maybe take each line, reflect for several minutes, and write down the truth of the statement. Ask yourself, why do I relate that way? Is this good or healthy? Is it bringing joy or sadness? From there move forward in trusting that God is a father, not a tyrant.
